SOCIETY

by the hostess, in which she was assisted by her daughters. Those present were: Mesdames E. B. Phelps, Hannah Anderson, Harris, of San Francisco; Cecelia Anderson, Wade, Appleton, Austin, Miller, Earl, W. Bernhardt, John Graham, Ramsey, Fields, Farnham, of Iowa; Angus, Williams, Gray, Lizzie Perkins, Hugh Edmunds, Zabriskie, Sagarber, Eva Anderson, Eaton, F. W. Radford, Misses Mary Sawyer, Ruby Smith and Gladys Smith.

Gave Demonstration.

Miss Helen Cowgill, of the Extension Department of the Oregon Agricultural College, was at Riddle yesterday and gave a canning demonstration to six of our girls, who plan to form a team to compete in contests to be held at the Douglas County Fair this fall, says the Riddle Tribune.

Five girls constitute a team, each member having a certain portion of the work to do. The work is done in public and there are five points upon which points are given, viz: Skill, speed, neatness, teamwork and the finished product.

The demonstration was given at the home of Mrs. R. C. Greer, and those taking part were Misses Valda Cripps, Julia and Alice Gilbert, Eva Blackwell, Lois Hervey and Margaret Greer. From these six a team of five will be selected. During the summer frequent practices in canning will be held under the direction of Mrs. Greer, the adviser, and the young ladies intend to give a good account of themselves at the county fair, with the hope of winning the county contest, in which event they would go to the state fair at Salem to compete with the winning teams from other counties of the state.

Informal Farewell.

An informal farewell party was given in honor of Miss Blanche Thompson last Tuesday night at the barbecue grounds, near the Riddle Tribune. A big camp fire was made in the grove, around which the company gathered and sang songs. An adjournment was taken to the pavilion, where dancing was indulged in for a time, after which all returned to the fire to participate in a wienie roast. A large quantity of wienies, huns and coffee was disposed of with much merriment. Some of the company remained by the fire, while others resumed dancing which continued until midnight. Miss Thompson has gone to Roseburg for a few days' visit, and will proceed to her home at Tualatin to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Martin, of Seattle, were the guests of honor at a delightful dinner served at the Empress Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hamilton. Mr. Martin was a Southern Pacific conductor at one time and is an old friend of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton.

Mrs. Nadine Shepherd, a popular matron of this city, has returned here from Kansas City, where she visited with friends.

Miss Jessie Burdette, of Portland, who passed a week with friends here, returned to her home last evening.

B. W. Bates expects to leave for Newport early in August, where he will pass a few days visiting with Mrs. Bates, who has been there for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Voland Ayer, who are at present visiting with the latter's sister at the Riddle, will leave there soon for Newport, where they will enjoy life on the beach.

Miss Helen Deery, popular social and in the pastime, is passing her vacation at Medford. She is visiting with friends there.

Miss Pearl Hall, of Lanesboro, is a houseguest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Hall.

The recent cold weather has had the effect of putting the camper off putting away the last of the season's goods, as well as many trunks which had been planned to be sent to the coast.

Mrs. M. M. Miller, who is spending the summer with relatives in Washington, writes that she is having a delightful time. She will return here for several weeks.

Mrs. Annie Driskell writes from Pocatello, Idaho, that she is having a delightful visit with her family there.

Prominent among the Portland people who spent the past two weeks camping along the streams of Douglas County were Dr. and Mrs. Luther Hamilton, of Portland. They established camp on Little River. Other members of the party were Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Hamilton, Attorney and Mrs. C. L. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richardson.

A nifty white "bug" will soon be the property of Miss Madge Miller, a popular young lady of this city. The engine and chassis have already been purchased and the body is under construction. The little car will be very attractive and will no doubt be enjoyed by its owner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Brodie, the former of whom is president of the State Editorial Association, will pass Tuesday night in Roseburg. They will stop over here enroute to Medford to attend the annual meeting of the editors of the state.

J. W. Perkins and wife and the former's mother made frequent trips to the country during the past week.

Mrs. Harry Hildeburn and baby are expecting to leave for points in Jackson County soon, where they will enjoy camp life for a couple of months. They will join Mr. Hildeburn, who preceded them there Friday.

Mrs. W. E. Rosserman, of Corvallis, has written that she will arrive here sometime in August for a brief visit with friends.

Mrs. Oua Royer, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shaper, for some time past, will locate in Portland later in the summer. She formerly lived there. Mrs. Royer says she likes Portland better than San Francisco, because of the milder climate.

Mrs. Carl D. Shoemaker, accompanied by Miss Hildegarde Shoemaker, went to Newport this week where they will remain during the remainder of the season. Mrs. Shoemaker has a cottage there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Fory and children spent the day at Winchester, where they enjoyed a picnic on the banks of the river.

Rev. Barr G. Lee is sojourning in Los Angeles, Calif., where he is visiting with his parents. Rev. Lee left on his trip Monday and is expected home in another week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Cash and two sons, of the Valley View Fruit Farm, and the former's brother, Rev. C. Cash, of Portland, who had been a visitor here, went to Marshfield on Monday and spent Tuesday on Half Moon Bay. They returned here on Wednesday, reporting a very enjoyable trip.

The members of the Local Temperance League and the ladies of the W. C. T. U. will enjoy their annual day out of doors and picnic next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Deane and daughter, Florence, plan to leave for (Continued on Page Six.)

The Best Diarrhoea Medicine.
"A customer came into my store for other things and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said it was the best medicine he ever used," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.
